

Happy 50th Wedding Anniversary

50 years ago today, Bob and Joyce (Bonnie) Lehman were married in Bridgeport, Connecticut, April 28, 1962. Bob whisked her away to a new and exciting life in New Jersey where their three beautiful daughters were born. since then they have moved from NJ to California to Arizona and back to California to be near their family: daughters, Deb, Tracy and Kelly, their charming, son-in-law Larry and their awesome grandchildren, Tyler and Ryan.

They have lived in Chino Hills now for 12 years (the most in any one place) and they truly enjoy the area. They share a successful wholesale distribution company with their daughters and recently located to Chino to be closer to home. Most days you can either see them at Community Park watching Canyon Hills Little League games or eating dinner at the Cock-A-Doodle in Chino, their favorite tavern.

Their long marriage may be attributed to $2 Buck Chuck, a little Vodka with lemon, separate televisions and all mixed together with genuine kindness and caring.

Congratulations to the happy couple and we wish them many more blissful and healthy years.

*We love you Mom and Dad!
